

2017/18 Annual PottyHQ Scholarship

(Information seulement disponible en Anglais)

PottyHQ is dedicated to parents with kids within the potty training age. We review various products suitable for kids within this age bracket as well as offer tips from experienced mothers across the globe. We value the importance of education in the society, and as such we deem it fit to inspire students by organizing yearly scholarship. The scholarship is targeted towards undergraduates and postgraduate students with interest in health and marketing related issues.

Scholarship awarded on the basis of best essay (max. 1,000 words) on the topic: “Young Mothers and Parenting Issues”. We are particularly interested in seeing how giving birth early could positively or negatively impact parenting abilities.
