

Number:	ASA-405
Title:	Minimum Number of Students Required for a Course to be Offered
Person responsible for enforcement:	Vice-Rector, Academic and Research
Entered into force:	February 23, 2022
Approved:	February 23, 2022 by the Board of Governors This document replaces all previous regulations on this subject.
Exception:	No exception to this regulation without prior written authorization from the Board of Governors

In this document, the masculine form is used without prejudice and for conciseness purposes only.

1. Objective

This regulation establishes the administrative standards by which to judge the number of students required for a course to be offered.

2. Regulation

- 2.1 At the undergraduate level or its equivalent, a minimum of ten enrolled students is required for a course to be offered.
- 2.2 At the master's level, the minimum is six enrolled students.
- 2.3 On the launch of a new study program approved by the Senate, the Administration Committee may grant a delay of up to three years regarding the minimum number of enrolled students required for a course to be given.