Workshop

Evolving Perspectives on Clerical Sexual Abuse in the Catholic Church

November 9, 2022

9am - 4pm (EST)

We would be delighted to welcome you in person at 223 Main Street, room L120. Light snacks will be served.

Or Via Zoom (the link will be sent to you by email on November 8th).

Speakers: Mark Slatter, Associate Professor of Theological Ethics - Faculty of Theology

How is clerical sexual abuse distinct from other forms of sexual abuse? What are the personal and collective pathologies underlying abuse and the conspiracies of silence? Are collective values and patterns changing? This seminar will incorporate insights from Beyond 'Bad Apples', a major study on sexual abuse in the Catholic Church that was published in August of 2022.
