

Spring Session in Public Ethics
Saturday, April 8th, Saint Paul University
Guigues Building, Room G102

Each talk will be twenty minutes for presentation followed by ten minutes for questions.

Morning Session

Morning Coffee: 9:00 – 9:20

9:20-9:50

Madzouka B. Kokolo, Graduate: MA in Public Ethics,
“National Security and Military Engagement: The French Militaristic Anthem”

9:50-10:20

Stephen Hare, PhD, Manager, Development and Support, Defence Ethics Programme,
ADM (RS), National Defence / Government of Canada
“Military Culture: Challenges and Solutions”

10:20-10:30 -- Coffee Break

10:30-11:00

Lorcelyne Vernet, Student, MA in Public Ethics
« L'Équilibre entre les libertés religieuses et civiles :
Une perspective éthique du multiculturalisme en Amérique du Nord »

11:00-11:30

Fardosa Loyan, Graduate: MA in Public Ethics,
Policy Analyst, Surveillance and Epidemiology Division, Centre for Chronic Disease Prevention,
Public Health Agency of Canada
“Ethica Pirata: Somali Pirates and EU NAVFOR”

11:30-12:00

Dr. Rajesh Shukla, School of Public Ethics, Faculty of Philosophy, Saint Paul University
“Migration and Integration”

Lunch: 12:00 -- 1:00 pm (Provided)

Afternoon Session

1:00-1:30

Odair Camati, doctorant en philosophie, Université do Vale do Rio dos Sinos, Porto Alegre, Brésil
« Le rôle de la reconnaissance et de l'autonomie dans les débats autour de multiculturalisme »

1:30-2:00

Emily York, MA Student, MA in Public Ethics, Saint Paul University
“Post-Truth, Populism, and Chantal Mouffe”

2:00-2:10 -- Coffee Break

2:10-2:40

Helen Burgan, Senior Human Resources Advisor, Policy and Programs, Canadian Heritage
Charles Lepage, PhD, Senior Writer-Editor, Public Services and Procurement Canada
“Current efforts by the Government to improve organizational health in the federal public service”

2:40-3:10

Richard Viger, Student, MA in Public Ethics program
“Will New Philosophical and Ethical Public Policies Safeguard Humanity from an Unruly Fourth Industrial Revolution?”

3:10-3:40

Dr. Richard Feist, School of Public Ethics, Faculty of Philosophy, Saint Paul University
“Some Reflections on the House of Commons Motion 103: Islamophobia”

For Further Information Contact:

Dr. R. Feist, Faculty of Human Sciences and Philosophy

rfeist@ustpaul.ca