ROGERS CHAREST, SR. – AWARD FOR BROADCAST AND MEDIA ARTS

The purpose of this award is to foster an awareness of the possibilities provided by broadcast media in developing understanding and cooperation between various cultural and ethnic groups in Canadian society. This award may focus yearly on any particular ethnic group.

Field of interest

✓ Communications

Conditions

✓ any qualified applicant (individual or group) who has taken the initiative to create a special program or series of audio vignettes or reports suitable for broadcast, which may further the cause of multiculturalism in Canada. The final product may provide a window into the particular characteristics and unique qualities of a given identifiable group within the Canadian cultural mosaic, so that we, as Canadians, may better understand one another.

✓ Works in progress and/or completed works will be considered.

✓ Applicants must submit a written proposal (in English) outlining the intended project, including possible broadcast applications, or outlets to be used for distribution of the final product. A budget is also required.

✓ Limit of one submission per applicant. If a particular project/proposal was previously submitted and chosen as an award recipient, that project is not eligible to re-apply.

✓ Award recipients must submit a brief, written report to CKER Radio, Ltd. within one year of receiving this award. An audio copy of the finished product must also be supplied.

Value: Five hundred dollars (500$)

Deadline: November 30, annually

Number: One (1) award is granted each year.
