FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Saint Paul University celebrates its graduates on its own campus for the first time since 1965!

Ottawa, June 22, 2017 – Two convocations will be held at Saint Paul University on June 23 to celebrate the success of our 186 graduates from Human Sciences, Canon Law, Philosophy and Theology.

What: Saint Paul University Convocation 2017

Where: De Mazenod Chapel, Saint Paul University, 223 Main Street, Ottawa

When:

- Ceremony I: Friday, June 23, at 10 a.m.
- Ceremony II: Friday, June 23, at 2 p.m.

Please note: Parking will be free on campus all day.

During the ceremony, the Governor General's Gold Medal will be awarded to Amy Pauley, Doctor of Philosophy (Theology), and the Governor General's Silver Medal to Brenda Caron-Torti, who holds an Honours Bachelor of Arts in Human Relations and Spirituality. These medals are awarded to students graduating with the highest average from a university program: the Gold Medal is awarded at the graduate level and the Silver Medal at the undergraduate level.
