APA/APAGS Award for Distinguished Graduate Student In Professional Psychology

(The information disponible seulement en Anglais)

The Award for Distinguished Graduate Student in Professional Psychology is awarded on an annual basis by the Board of Professional Affairs (BPA) and the American Psychological Association of Graduate Students (APAGS) to a graduate student who has demonstrated outstanding practice and application of psychology.

This award honors a graduate student who has demonstrated outstanding practice and application of psychology.

Sponsors: APA Board of Professional Affairs (BPA); American Psychological Association of Graduate Students (APAGS)

Eligibility:
- A qualified candidate must demonstrate exemplary performance in working with an underserved population in an applied setting OR have developed an innovative method for delivering health services to an underserved population.
- Eligible candidates are encouraged to apply from all psychology sub specialties (e.g., clinical, counseling, organization, school, health, etc) and can be self-nominated or nominated by a member of the American Psychological Association (APA). However, all self-nominations must be endorsed by a member of APA (i.e., faculty, supervisor) who serves the function of a nominator.
- All nominees must have excellent overall personal and professional reputations. Nominees should not have received disciplinary action from a state board of examiners in psychology and must have no history of ethical violations at the state or national level.

How to Apply:
All self-nominations must be endorsed by a member of APA (i.e., faculty, supervisor) who serves the function of a nominator.

Required Materials:
1. 1,000 word or less summary of work with an underserved population, additional parameters apply.
2. Curriculum vitae and a letter of support from a member of APA, and in the instance of a self-nomination, verification that the endorser will serve the role and complete the functions of a nominator.
