

2019 AEBC/T-Base Scholarship Program
(Information disponible seulement en Anglais)

The Alliance for Equality and Blind Canadians (AEBC) is a grassroots organization that works to improve the lives of the blind, deafblind, and partially sighted Canadians through education, empowerment, and advocacy. This year, there will be two T-Base Communications Scholarships, valued at $1,000 each. They are designed to help students pursue their educational endeavors and are not limited to any one discipline. These scholarships will be awarded for the 2019-2020 academic year beginning in the fall semester of 2019.

Deadline: March 29th, 2019;

Amount: $1,000;

Eligibility Criteria:

- They must be blind, deafblind, or partially sighted. For the purposes of this scholarship, one is considered to be “blind” if he/she has no vision or only light perception in the better of the two eyes, and “partially sighted” if he/she has a visual acuity of 20/60 or less (as measured on the Snellan eye chart) in the better eye with best correction, or if the visual field measures less than twenty degrees;
- They must be Canadian citizens or permanent residents of Canada;
- They must be attending a post-secondary institution, studying at the undergraduate or graduate level, or in college, vocational, educational upgrading, or performing arts programs;

Application Process:

- Completed application form (the application form can be found on the website listed below; please be advised that the application form can be found in both English and French);
- Most recent transcript;
- A personal essay not exceeding four pages in total (the topics of the personal essay can be found on the website listed below);
- One letter of reference.

For more information pertaining to this scholarship, the application process, and to access the application form, please refer to the link below:

<http://www.blindcanadians.ca/programs/scholarship>