

A Place for Mom
(Information seulement en anglais)

A Place for Mom is proud to offer a scholarship to students attending post-secondary school interested in the fields of aging and gerontology. As North America's largest senior living referral, we know the importance of supporting the training and education of our future senior care leaders.

Institution: A Place for Mom, an assisted living referral service.

Deadlines: May 1st, 2019;

Amount: $2,000

Eligibility Criteria:

- The applicants must be enrolled in a certificate, associate's degree, bachelor's degree, or graduate level program in a medical, nursing, or social sciences related major;
- The applicant must want to pursue a career in working with citizens; The applicant must also be attending classes at an accredited college or university at the time of the application;
- Employees of A Place of Mom and their families are not eligible to apply;

Application procedure:

- Student may choose to send either an essay or a video submission on the following topic:
 - “What are the most important life lessons that you have learned from a grandparent or other senior in your life? How will you use the lesson learned from them in your future career in working with seniors?”
- Further essay and video requirements can be found on the website linked below;
- Applicants must submit an essay or video, complete the student information form, and sign the Scholarship Award Agreement (the forms can be found on the website listed below);

All application information must be sent to:

scholarship@aplaceformom.com

For more information regarding the scholarship, the application forms, and more information pertaining to the video, please refer to the link below:

<https://www.aplaceformom.com/scholarship>