

Canadian Japanese Mennonite Scholarship (Information disponible seulement en Anglais)

In 1984 MCC issued an apology, on behalf of Canadian Mennonites, to Canadian Japanese for abused suffered during World War II. This scholarship is a symbol of cooperation between the two groups.

The $2,000 scholarship funds research on the protection of minority and human rights in Canada in order to reduce the potential for abuse and cultural minorities.

The National Association of Japanese Canadians and Mennonite Central Committee Canada co-sponsor the scholarship.

Deadline: April 1st, 2019;

Amount: $2,000;

Eligibility Criteria:

- Enrolled in a graduate program the fall of the following year;
- A Canadian citizen, permanent resident, or international student studying at a Canadian university in Canada;
- Doing research that will help protect minority or human rights;

Application Process:

- Complete the application form (the application form can be found listed on the link provided below);
- Insert your name on both copies of the Request for a Letter of Reference, and forward the Request for a Letter of Reference and Information Page to each of the two references indicated on your application form. Note that references should be faculty or academic references.

For more information pertaining to this scholarship, the application process, and to access the application packet, please refer to the link below:

<https://mcccanada.ca/get-involved/scholarships/cjms>