

Best Dissertation and Best Master's Thesis Award
(Information valid seulement en Anglais)

The Counselling Psychology Section of the Canadian Psychological Association is pleased to accept nominations for its annual Best Doctoral Dissertation and Best Master's Thesis awards. These awards recognize outstanding student research in the field of counselling psychology and include a monetary prize of $100 per award.

Deadline: June 1st, 2019

Amount: $100

Eligibility Criteria:

- Must be a counselling psychology student from a Canadian program;
- The research must have been successfully defended within 2 years prior to the annual award submission date.

Application Procedure:

- 10-page summary of the thesis/dissertation, written by the student;
 - Double spaced, 12 point font, 1 inch margins;
 - Tables and figures must be integrated into the document, not attached as appendices;
 - Title page and references do not count against page limit;
- Nomination letter
 - Nominating the individual must be a member of the counselling psychology section.

Submissions will be evaluated for:

- Contribution to knowledge and understanding in counselling psychology;
- Originality;
- Quality of research, as evidenced by (a) clear and compelling statement of research problem/question, (b) appropriate methodology and methods, (c) findings/results that are clear and show evidence of rigor, (d) compelling and well-grounded conclusions and implications, and (e) discussion of limitations;
- Quality of the writing.

For more information regarding the application process, please refer to the link below:

<https://cpa.ca/sections/counsellingpsychology/studentpage/>