

Canadian Counselling and Psychotherapy Association: Doctoral Student Dissemination Award Counsellor Educators and Supervisors (CES) Chapter
(Information seulement en Anglais)

The Canadian Counselling and Psychotherapy Association (CCPA) is a national bilingual association providing professional counsellors and psychotherapists with access to exclusive educational programs, certification, professional development, and direct contact with professional peers and specialty groups. The purpose of the following award is to recognize the work of CCPA Master's Level Students. The purpose of this scholarship is to encourage those who are CCPA members and who are doctoral students to consider a career as a counsellor educator. The CES Chapter Dissemination Award for Doctoral Students is intended to assist these members achieve this goal by providing funding to assist students present their work at the CCPA annual conference.

Institution: The Canadian Counselling and Psychotherapy Association

Deadline: March 1st, 2019

Amount: $500

Eligibility Criteria:

- The applicant must be a CCPA member in good standing;
- Must be a current doctoral student at an accredited university or a recent graduate of a doctoral program (i.e., no more than 12 months from the date of the conference);
- The first author on a session that has been accepted for presentation at the CCPA annual conference;

Evaluation Criteria:

- The applications will be evaluated on their overall merit including:
  - The scholarly merit of the session being presented;
  - The relevance of their session to the counselling profession in Canada;
  - The strength of the applicant's interest and potential to pursue an academic career in counselling.

Application Procedure:

- A letter of acceptance from CCPA, confirming that the applicant has been accepted to present a session at the CCPA annual conference;
- A 250-word abstract of the session they will be presenting;
- A short letter (max. 1 page) outlining (a) the applicant's career goals and the relevance of their session to the counselling profession in Canada;

- A current curriculum vitae;
- A letter from a counsellor educator, confirming the applicant's status as a current or recently graduated doctoral student and recommending the applicant for this award.

For more information pertaining to this award and the application process, please refer to the link below:

https://www.ccpa-accp.ca/wp-content/uploads/2019/01/CEChapterAward\_en-2019.pdf