

French Language Scholarship
(Information disponible seulement en Anglais)

The Canadian Institute for Advanced Legal Studies French language Scholarship ordinarily covers the full amount of the tuition fees payable by the recipient to a French-language European university and includes an allowance to cover a portion of living expenses and reasonable travel expenses to and from the European university, subject to any other awards received by the successful candidate. The Canadian Institute for Advanced Legal Studies shall determine each year the maximum amount of the scholarship, up to an amount of $20,000 for the 2020-2021 academic year, and in doing so will take into account the tuition fees as well as the anticipated living expenses and travel expenses of the successful candidate.

Deadline: December 31st, 2019;

Amount: up to $20,000;

Eligibility Criteria:

- Graduate students in law towards a second cycle or third cycle diploma (the equivalent of a Master's or Doctoral degree from a Canadian University), at a European University for a program of study that is conducted principally in the French language, to a person who has, in the four years before the candidate will commence the proposed studies been awarded a bachelor's degree in law from a Canadian university;
- An applicant must be accepted into a French-language European university for graduate studies in law in order to receive this Scholarship, although such acceptance need not be confirmed at the time of the application for the Scholarship or at the time that the Institute provides the candidate with notice that he or she has been selected to receive the Scholarship.

Application Process:

- CV;
- A personal statement indicating why the applicant wishes to undertake graduate studies in law and why the applicant is suited to undertake such studies, as well as an undertaking that the proposed program study is conducted principally in the French language;
- A copy of transcripts for undergraduate and graduate studies, for studies in law or for a Bar Admissions Course, as applicable;
- A maximum of three letters of reference; and
- Statement of tuition fees and anticipated living and travel expenses.

For more information pertaining to this scholarship and the application process, please refer to the link below:

<https://www.canadian-institute.com/english/FRscholarship-e.html>