

Innovative Designs for Accessibility (IDEA) Competition (Information disponible seulement en Anglais)

The Innovative Designs for Accessibility (IDeA) student competition aims to inspire students to use their creativity to develop innovative, cost-effective and practical solutions to accessibility-related issues resulting in communities that are more accessible for persons with disabilities.

Deadline: April 30th, 2019;

Amount: $5,000;

Eligibility Criteria:

- Currently enrolled in any postsecondary program at a university which has recognized provincial degree-granting power, or their affiliates;
- Students in all programs including architecture, arts, business, computer science, early childhood education, engineering, industrial design, medicine, nursing, political science, psychology, sociology, social work, etc. are welcome to apply.

Application Process:

- Complete application requirements (for a complete list of the application requirements and how to apply to this competition visit the link below);

For more information pertaining to this competition, the application process, and to access more information about the application requirements, please refer to the link below:

https://www.univcan.ca/programs-and-scholarships/innovative-designs-accessibility-competition/#a_2