

Janet Hyde Graduate Student Research Grant
(Information disponible seulement en Anglais)

These $500 grants are made possible through the generosity of Janet Shibley Hyde, PhD, who donates the royalties from her book, “Half the Human Experience”, to support feminists research by doctoral psychology students. Sponsored by Div. 35.

Deadline: March 15th, 2019; September 15th, 2019;

Amount: $500;

Eligibility Criteria:

- Applicants must be currently enrolled in doctoral programs in psychology. Past recipients of Hyde Graduate Student Research Grants are not eligible to apply;
- Because of the purpose of this award is to facilitate research that otherwise might not be possible, projects that are beyond the data analysis stage are not eligible.

Application Process:

- Applicants must submit the following documents:
 - Cover letter with project title, investigator’s name, address, phone, fax and email address;
 - A proposal (five-page maximum, double-spaced) addressing the project’s purpose, theoretical rationale and procedures, including how the method and data analysis stem from the proposed theory and purpose. (References are not included in this five-page limit);
 - A one-page statement articulating the study’s relevance to feminist goals and importance to feminist research;
 - The expected timeline for progress and completion of the project (including the date of the research proposal committee meeting if applicable). The project timeline should not exceed two years;
 - A faculty sponsor’s recommendation, which includes why the research cannot be funded, or funded in full, by other sources. This letter should be attached to the email with the application materials. Please do not send it separately;
 - Status of IRB review process, including expected date of IRB submission and approval. Preference will be given to proposals that have received approval;
 - An itemized budget (if additional funds are needed to ensure completion of the project, please specify sources). Funds cannot be used for tuition, living expenses or travel to present research at a conference;
 - The applicant's curriculum vitae;
 - All sections of the proposal should be typed and prepared according to APA style (e.g., please use 12-point font);

- Applicants should submit no more than two files (i.e., one with the letter of recommendation and one with all the other required materials).

Please send all application materials attached to a single email message to both the Hyde Award co-chairs, Gail Bruce-Sanford, PhD, and Alexandra Zelin, PhD. Questions and other communications should also be sent to both co-chairs.
