

John J. Sheehan Overcoming Injuries Scholarship
(Information disponible seulement en Anglais)

The Law Office of John J. Sheehan is a personal injury law firm based in Boston, Massachusetts. As personal injury attorneys, we understand the challenges that come after a personal injury, and are committed to helping injured workers and accident victims get fair and just compensations. Following this mission, we are pleased to announce our Overcoming Injuries Scholarship, which will award $1,000 to a student who has overcome a serious injury in their life. Through this scholarship, we hope to give back to a student who has experienced hardship but continues to pursue their dreams.

The scholarship will be awarded to a student whose essay best describes a time when they or a loved one were physically injured and how they overcame it. In a 750-1000-word essay, discuss what the challenges involved and what you learned from the experience.

Deadline: June 30th, 2019;

Amount: $1,000;

Eligibility Criteria:

- Must be enrolled in an accredited community college, undergraduate, or graduate program, and have a minimum cumulative average of 3.0 or higher;
- Applicants may still submit an application if awaiting admission or deciding on an institution, however, the selected individual must be enrolled for the Spring of 2019 semester before receiving the financial aid.

Application Process:

- A current resume with contact and education information;
- An official or unofficial academic transcript, and
- An essay of 750-1,000-word discussing how you or a loved one has overcome a personal injury. Explain the challenges you or your loved one face, and the personal growth that came from such an experience.

For more information pertaining to this scholarship, the application process, and important submission information, please visit the link below:

<https://attorneysheehan.com/overcoming-injuries-scholarship/>