

Lyle Makosky Values and Ethics in Sport Fund
(Information disponible seulement en Anglais)

The purpose of this scholarship is to stimulate thoughtful examination of values-based and ethical sport. It was established in 2014 by Lyle Makosky to help support the work of the True Sport Foundation (TSF) and the Canadian Centre for Ethics in Sport. The fund's capital is held and invested by the Community Foundation of Ottawa and annual earnings are used by the TSF to support financial awards in the area of values and ethics in sport with the intent to support: the critical examination of and an open dialogue on the compelling values-based and ethical challenges in today's sport, protecting and enhancing the quality and value of the sport experience and ethical threats, ensuring integrity of the conduct of sport, and watching over the values, ethical code, and principles on which sport is found.

Deadline: April 30th, 2019;

Amount: Variable;

Eligibility Criteria:

- Must be a Canadian citizen or permanent resident;
- Must be active in Canadian sport; as an athlete, practitioner (coach, official, administrator) or educator (teacher, university or college faculty, etc.) and,
- If an athlete, must be engaged in post-secondary education.

Application Process:

- Must provide 2 letters of reference;
- A PDF copy of your academic transcripts.
- Fill the application form (can be found on the link below).

For more information pertaining to this scholarship, the application process, and to access the application form, please refer to the link below:

<https://truesportpur.ca/lyle-makosky-values-and-ethics-sport-fund>