

MADD Scholarship
(Information disponible seulement en Anglais)

MADD Canada has restructured our bursary program to have more meaningful impact on students' lives. Beginning in 2016, one (1) bursary of $8,000 will be awarded to the applicant with the highest score in honour of Louise Joanne Twerdy (see further details below). Additional bursaries in the amount of $4,000 will also be available. Winning applicants may not reapply in subsequent years.

Louise Joanne Twerdy was a compassionate voice for victims/survivors of impaired driving and a powerful leader whose determination was instrumental in legislative changes that improved Canada's impaired driving laws, police enforcement powers and the judicial system. The Louise Joanne Twerdy Leadership Bursary in the amount of $8,000 will be awarded to one student each year who aspires to have the same leadership, dedication and compassion that Louise Twerdy exhibited throughout her lifetime.

Deadline: May 31st (of each year);

Amount: $8,000;

Eligibility Criteria:

- Applicants who have been severely injured or who have had a parent (or legal guardian) or sibling killed or severely injured as a result of an impaired driving crash
- Who are enrolled in a full-time, ministry-approved, post-secondary educational program;
- Injuries must be catastrophic or severe and have had a significant impact on the applicants' lives.

Application Process:

- Must provide proof of injury and relation to impaired driving will be required;
- Completion of the application form.

For more information pertaining to the scholarship and to access the application form, please refer to the link below:

<https://madd.ca/pages/programs/victimsurvivor-services/youth-bursary-fund/>