

The Applied Social Issues Internship
(Information disponible seulement en Anglais)

The purpose of this scholarship is to encourage research that is conducted in cooperation with a community or government organization, public interest group, or another not-for-profit entity that will benefit directly from the project.

Deadline: March 15th, 2019;

Amount: $300-$2,500;

Eligibility Criteria:

- Undergraduate seniors (rising seniors included);
- Graduate students;
- First-year post-doctorates in psychology, applied social science, and related disciplines are eligible to apply;
- Applicant must be a SPSSI member.

Application Process:

- A 3-6 page proposal including the proposed budget and a cover sheet with your name, address, phone number, e-mail address, and the title of your proposal. If an intervention is planned, the proposal should carefully describe the theoretical rationale for the intervention, specifically how the effectiveness of the program will be assessed and the plan to disseminate the findings to relevant parties and policy makers;
- A short resume;
- A letter from a faculty sponsor/supervisor of the project, a statement concerning protection for participants if relevant and any funds that the sponsoring organization will use to support the intern's research;
- A letter from an organizational sponsor (waived if the applicant is proposing to organize a group) that endorses the intern's research activities, describes how organization will potentially benefit from the work, and outlines any funds that organization will use to support the intern's research.

For more information pertaining to this scholarship, the application process, and to access the application form, please refer to the link below:

<https://www.spssi.org/index.cfm?pageid=637>