

The Canadian Counselling and Psychotherapy Practice-Based Counselling and Psychotherapy Research Award
(Information valid seulement en anglais)

The Canadian Counselling and Psychotherapy Association (CCPA) is a national bilingual association providing professional counsellors and psychotherapists with access to exclusive educational programs, certification, professional development, and direct contact with professional peers and specialty groups. The purpose of the following award is to recognize CCPA members providing practice-based research advancement to the counselling and psychotherapy field.

Institution: The Canadian Counselling and Psychotherapy Association (CCPA)

Deadline: December 1st, 2019

Amount: $2,000

Eligibility Criteria:

- Cutting edge research project must be practice-based; that is, the project incorporates an element of practice in the methodology or research output;
- Quantitative and qualitative research proposals are acceptable;
- Collaboration with community partners is encouraged but not essential;
- Recipient must hold a CCC designation;
- Research project must be designed to enhance or advance counselling related practices and/or provide leadership to the profession

Application Procedure:

- Project proposal;
- Duration of project;
- Researcher(s) and project;
- Description of project;
- Confirmation that ethical review board approval will be sought if relevant;
- Funding (if any);
- References;
- Curriculum Vitae.

For more information regarding the scholarship and the application process, please refer to the link below:

<https://www.ccpa-accp.ca/membership/awards/awards-policy/#dissertation>