

The Doreen Kronick Scholarship
(Information disponible seulement en Anglais)

The purpose of this scholarship is to encourage graduate students, whose programs of study will lead them to a field that will assist persons with learning disabilities. The scholarship is open to any graduate field of study whose program will lead them to a field that will assist persons with learning disabilities.

Deadline: May 15th, 2019;

Amount: $500;

Eligibility Criteria:

- Student from any Canadian institution;
- Candidates must have completed an undergraduate degree either at a university or junior college whose courses are recognized by a Canadian university;
- Candidates must be Canadian citizens or permanent residents who have lived in Canada for at least two years as permanent residents;
- Candidates must be pursuing a graduate program of study at a Canadian university which will lead that individual into a field that will lead them to be able to assist persons with learning disabilities.

Application Process:

- Completed application form (the application form can be found on the website linked below);
- The applicant must also complete the original form and submit a 200-word outline on:
 - Their plans for the ensuing university year and description of their future academic program component(s) related to learning disabilities;
 - Their future career goals related to learning disabilities;
 - Their community involvement as a volunteer, any extracurricular activities, and/or employment.
- Three letters of reference;
- An official academic transcript covering the last year of study.

For more information pertaining to this scholarship, the application process, and to access the application form, please refer to the link below:

<http://opps.tigweb.org/5419>