

The Harvey T. Strosberg Essay Prize
(Information seulement en Anglais)

Harvey T. Strosberg, Q.C., Editor-in-Chief of the Canadian Class Action Review, and Irwin Law Inc. are pleased announce the sixteenth annual Harvey T. Strosberg Essay Prize competition. The prize of $10,000 is awarded to an outstanding student paper on Canadian class action. The winner of the prize is also invited to join the judging panel of the competition in the following year.

Deadline: April 8th, 2019

Amount: $10,000

Eligibility Criteria:

- Canadian students;
- Must enrolled in an undergraduate, graduate, or professional program;
- Essays may be written from the perspective of any discipline or from a multi-disciplinary perspective;
- Submissions must involve an aspect of class action, which may include legal, accounting, computer science, management, public relations, and financing issues, among others.

Application Procedure:

- All essays submissions must be types and be between 8,000 and 15,000 words (not including citations);
- Must use MLA;
- Must include a short abstract of no more than 250 words;
- Must include a short bio about yourself and your contact information;
- If you are writing in French, please provide an English abstract;

Please submit the application at the following addresses:

Lesley Steeve, Managing Editor
Harvey T. Strosberg Essay Prize
Irwin Law Inc.
14 Duncan Street, Suite 206
Toronto, Ontario, M5G 3G8
(HARD COPY)

Irwinlaw.com
(ELECTRONIC COPY)

For more information pertaining to this scholarship and the application process, please refer to the link below:

<https://www.irwinlaw.com/harvey-t-strosberg-essay-prize>