

The Right Honourable Paul Martin SR. Scholarship
(Information disponible seulement en Anglais)

The Canadian Institute for Advanced Legal Studies annually awards two scholarships for the L.L.M. degree at the University of Cambridge, England. The Right Honourable Paul Martin Sr. Scholarship covers full tuition at the University of Cambridge, a monthly living allowance, and return airfare, subject to any other awards received by the successful candidate.

Deadline: December 31st, 2019;

Amount: Covering costs;

Eligibility Criteria:

- Candidates who have been awarded a law degree from a three or four-year program at a faculty of law in a Canadian University in the four years before the candidate will commence his or her studies at the University of Cambridge are eligible for these scholarships;
- An applicant must be accepted into the University of Cambridge and a Cambridge College for the L.L.M. in order to receive this scholarship, although such acceptance need not be confirmed at the time of the application for the scholarship nor at the time that the Institute provides the candidate with notice that he or she has been selected to receive the scholarship.

Application Process:

- Curriculum vitae;
- A personal statement indicating why the applicant wishes to undertake graduate studies in law at the University of Cambridge and why the applicant is suited to undertake such studies;
- A copy of transcripts for undergraduate and graduate studies, for studies in law and for a Bar Admissions Course, as applicable; and
- A maximum of three letters of reference.

For more information pertaining to this scholarship and the application process, please refer to the link below:

<https://www.canadian-institute.com/english/scholarships-e.html>