

Wade Hampton Employment Training Bursary
(Information disponible seulement en Anglais)

No one embodied the spirit and vision of Ontario March of Dimes more than WWII flying veteran, Wade Hampton. At age 31, on the same day the polio vaccine was announced, Hampton was diagnosed with the disease and taken to hospital. A born fighter, Hampton refused to be held back by the effects of polio and recovered to create an extraordinary career and a rich personal life. In the spirit of Hampton's commitment and in cooperation with the Hampton family, March of Dimes established the Wade Hampton Memorial Fund. The income earned is used to provide bursaries to people with a disability. The purpose of this bursary is to encourage employment advancement, promote employment opportunities, and foster employment excellence.

Deadline: N/A;

Amount: $1,500;
