1. Policy statement

This regulation outlines the terms for awarding the honorary title of professor emeritus as well as the corresponding privileges.

2. Conditions

- 2.1 Has been promoted to the rank of associate or full professor.
- 2.2 Has taught for at least ten years at Saint Paul University.
- 2.3 Has distinguished himself through his intellectual rigour, research program, quality of teaching and major contributions to research training, as well as involvement within the University and the academic sphere. It is understood that a fair balance among these elements may be considered, but that an exceptional contribution with regard to one particular element at the expense of the others may also be considered.
- 2.3 Has officially announced his retirement or retired from Saint Paul University within the last twelve months.

3. Nomination

The rank of professor emeritus is conferred by the Board of Governors on the recommendation of the Dean and the Faculty Teaching Personnel Committee (FTPC) following a request from the candidate.

4. Privileges

- 4.1 Mention of name and title in the University calendar.
- 4.2 Invitation to official ceremonies.
- 4.3 Access to the University library and all its services.
- 4.4 Access to @ustpaul.ca email.
- 4.5 If the professor's research activities justify it, an office may be assigned.
